

Dan Lee

Dan Lee is an experienced business executive and attorney with a reputation for strategic leadership through complex and critical situations. Dan was most recently the Chief Legal Officer, SVP, General Counsel and Secretary of Caribou Coffee Company, Inc. As corporate secretary and counsel to Boards in both public and private companies, Dan has helped guide organizations through complex and often critical strategic decisions. Dan is active member in the community and has spoken at numerous continuing legal education classes on topics such as marketing, intellectual property, securities, and business ethics. He has also taught MBA and Law School classes on topics such as business law and finance.